

Who is This Jesus, You Say?

Matthew 21:1-11

A. Today we celebrate the _____ entry of Jesus into Jerusalem where He is hailed by some as a _____ King. This is called _____ Sunday.

He has left _____ and made the roughly _____ mile journey to Jerusalem. Two of his disciples are charged with going into town and getting a _____ and her _____. (Luke 22:8) (Zech 9:9) _____ are thrown over the animals and in the roadway. Palm _____ are cut and laid before the incoming King. (John 12:12-13)

This is reminiscent of _____ doing something similar with King Jehu in 1 Kings 19:16-19. It is a signal of nationalism. Some in Jerusalem (a large crowd) were hailing Him as the heir to _____.

The people shout _____ and _____ while others who do not know Him say that He's a _____ from Nazareth of Galilee.

Riding on a foal indicates that He is a _____ servant Leader rather than a political or military one.

B. The question for you and me is _____? Do we accept Him as our _____ and then rejoice that we have a ticket to Heaven and never grow into a more intimate relationship with Him?

Do we accept Him as the guy that the _____ always talks about?

Do we know all about Him but still don't _____ Him?

Why are we in the shape we're in here in _____ and Nicholasville? How about _____, the _____, and the _____?

God must not just be your _____, an _____, or an icon. He must be the _____ of your life.

C. The question for this Palm Sunday, for you and for me, _____
